Committee for Portland announces Community Members

The Committee for Portland recently welcomed United Way Glenelg, Baclinks and The Rotary Club of Portland to the Committee for Portland Board for 2013/2014.

Committee for Portland Executive Office Anita Rank said “In order for the Committee for Portland to “create a vibrant city that welcomes people and opportunities” it is essential we engage with community groups to broaden our membership base and work together as one to achieve better outcomes for Portland”.

Ms Rank explained that Community Members are a vital and important asset for the Committee. Community Members are expected to;

- Provide representation to Committee for Portland Member functions and AGM
- Contribute to surveys and studies that will assist them in achieving their goals including input into the strategic plan when required,
- Provide linkage to your organisation (this maybe in the form of presentations, events or AGM attendances)
- Suggest ways that the Committee maybe able to work together and
- Communicate to the Committee the positive and negative impacts that occur within the community and ways that they may be able to assist.

All three Community Groups will be given the opportunity to present their current projects or talk about their organization to the wider community at the committee for Portlands free community breakfast on Thursday the 25th of July.
