Seafood by the Seashore a sell out

Presented by the Committee for Portland, "Seafood by the Seashore" on Sunday 15 March has sold out. Committee for Portland Executive Officer, Anita Rank was ecstatic "It is fantastic to have a sold out event and having Stefano as the celebrity chef for the event is such an outstanding opportunity to promote the benefits of food tourism to our region".

She explained "Local producers have been collaborating for the last couple of months to deliver a high quality event that will show case the diversity of food and wine available in our region".

Set against the stunning Portland foreshore, the event will give foodies the chance to experience the delights of locally caught seafood and regional produce.

This will be the second year that Portland has participated in the Melbourne Food & Wine Festival. Ms Rank said "We have such outstanding produce at our back door and it is a great opportunity to showcase it by being part of the Melbourne Food & Wine Festival".
